The Secret in the Wings

February 26, 2005 – March 26, 2005

directed and adapted by Mary Zimmerman from five classic fairy tales Running Time: 90 mins, with no intermission

Tony Award-winning director Mary Zimmerman is beloved by Rep audiences for her productions here of The Notebooks of Leonardo, The Odyssey and Metamorphoses. Her latest creation is set somewhere between an enchanted forest and a suburban basement, an altogether spellbinding, visually captivating and surprise-filled tapestry of rarely told European fairy tales that are often strange and warping stories. Founded in 1903, the Seattle Symphony is one of the oldest and largest cultural institutions in the Pacific Northwest. Under the direction of Music Director Gerard Schwarz, the Symphony is recognized for its adventurous programming and tradition of performing music by contemporary composers. The Seattle Symphony is represented on nearly 100 compact discs and recognized with 10 Grammy nominations. From September through July each year, the Seattle Symphony is heard live in Benaroya Hall and in the community by more than 300,000 people.
